ALLIES FLANK ITALIAN OUTPOST

THE SURRENDER OF PANTELLERIA, after 19 days of incessant bombing, places the Italian outpost on the island of Lampedusa in an exceedingly vulnerable position. There is no way in which supplies can be sent to the garrison on the island except by air, and the Allied planes based on Malta and in Tunisia make this a hazardous, if not impossible, task. With the taking of Pantelleria, British and American bombers will soon be moving from air fields on it against continental Axis targets. Sicily and Sardinia, believed by military experts to be the next stepping stones on the Allied invasion chart, are now within shorter bombing range of Allied positions in the Mediterranean and will undoubtedly bear the immediate brunt of new, concentrated raids. Vince wins the gown and presents it to Ann who, overhearing a disappointed dowager's catty remark, an-nounces she will reauction the gown for the War Relief. Vince outbids everyone — this time giving the frock to Julia. The tea over, he invites the crowd to dine aboard his yacht, "The Pelican." Ann declines, pleading a headache. Alone in her apartment after Julia's departure, she regrets her hasty decision, es-pecially since learning Jim has Vince's invitation. Julia's behest, Jim calls and persuades Ann to join the party which, following the dinner, progressed to "The Bellevue" for dancing. Arriving there, they learn the others have gone on to "The Raton," a fashionable gambling club. The ride to the club with Jim was all too brief for Ann. Hank Bruger begs Ann to be his mascot at the roulette table, promising her half his winnings. Bruger is ob-served withdrawing a large winning bet belonging to another player. At the same time, the house appropriations committee used a paring knife on a New Deal agency, the National Youth administration (NYA), deciding it had outlived its usefulness. Lowered Physical Standard May Get Exempted Draftees

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 15 .- Many of the more than 2,800,000 men rejected by the armed services for physical disqualifications may be eclaimed as a result of lowered standards, delaying the induction of fathers, testimony before a house committee indicated today.

Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey, in testimony last month at hearings on the War Manpower commission's appropriation bill which were made public by the committee today, said lowered Navy standards might postpone the drafting of fathers three or four months.

Since then, the Navy has dropped its requirements. Although official indications have been that the drop was not sufficient to produce enough "reclaimed" men to postpone the father-draft three or four months, there have been hints might be held off beyond the date last mentioned officially,

And while Hershey and War Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt told the committee that eventually a "great majority" of physically-fit fathers might be in miform, there were many points in their testimony suggesting a brighter outlook for family heads.

One was McNutt's statement that the armed forces by the end of June will have 9,200,000 men toward their top planned strength of 10,-900,000 by the end of "this year, and that Army inductions may be cut about 60 per cent after next December.

With the armed forces needing only 300,000 men a month at most for the rest of this year, they said here are still enough childless mer and physical reclaimables to meet quotas until Aug. 1 at least, and the fathers needed to make up the balance can be drawn from a of about 8,000,000 family

This bore out more recent draft estimates that less than 1,000,000 fathers at most will be inducted this year, or less than 17 out of 100 from the pool of nearly 6,000,000 non-farming fathers. Farm fathers are deferred on occupa-

The Brooklyn Dodgers have been trying to peddle Joe Medwick for several weeks without getting any several weeks without getting any satisfactory offers, but if Branch Rickey has made up his mind to turn loose the one-time great slugger of the National league, this is the day he might do it.

The club most likely to take him would be the New York Giants.

The Giants also recalled two pitchers, Hugh East and Rube Fischer from their Jersey City farm club in the International league, replacing them with Ken Trinkle and Bob Coombs.

CARDS TODAY IN

REDS WILL MEET

ST. LOUIS, June 15—The Cincinnati Reds go after the St. Louis Cardinals twice today in an effort to pull them down from the pin-nacie of the National loop. The Cincinnati athletes got off on the wrong foot yesterday when Mort Cooper bested Ray Starr Up to the sixth, both flingers allowed but four hits, then weather interferred for 14 minutes and when the teams took the field again, the Champs leaped on Starr's offerings for four runs on two intentional Total ____ 835 __903 810 2418 passes and four solid basé blows, the payoff being Catcher Walker Cooper's triple with the bases load-The Cards picked up another run off Bob Malloy, rookie right-hander, in the seventh, before Lefty Clyde Shoun took them in hand. The Reds scored their runs off Cooper in the final two frames. Frank McCormick, blasted his fourth homer of the year in the eighth after Lonnie Frey opened the round with a double. In the ninth, Eric Tipton hit a triple followed by Estel Crabtree's single to score the Reds' final run before Bert Haas pinch-hit into a game-ending double play.

Manager Southworth, who always seems to have a guy around who is building himself a consecutive hit-ting streak, continued in that en-viable class today as Harry Walker, little brother of Brooklyn's Dixie Walker, hit safely in his twentyfirst consecutive game. Previously Stan Musial and Whitey Kurowski complied hitting streaks of 22 games

FOOTBALL TRADITION

The last time West Virginia and Virginia Tech played football in Charleston, W. The next year in Huntington, W. Va., Ira Errett Rodgers led the Mountaineers to their most recent victory over V. P. I..... They're slated to meet again in Charleston this October because the war interrupted the W & L series.

SPORT No-Hitters Harder On Fans and Mates, Says Vander Meer

(By Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 15.—No-hitters are harder on fans and teammates than on pitchers, says was off form for several months, Johnny was recalling those two of the second game.

By pitching a no-hitter June 11, 1938, against Boston and on June 15 against Brooklyn at night, Vander Meer, then a 23-year-old Cincinnati freshman, set a major league record. Never before or since has a major league pitcher elbowed two no-hitters conseccutively, or even in one season.

Baseball immortality, even in the minds of the game's immortals, fades quickly and the husky, blond left-hander had no idea it was five years ago he made the record

"It's water over the dam," he grinned

Was he harrassed by doubts or fears as the hitless innings stretched longer and longer? Threw Curves Later

"No, I wasn't. Personally, I think those games were harder on the fans or the boys on the bench than on me. You see, I figured I had the second no-hit game in my lap, and I figured 'what the heck, if they get a hit, what can I do about it?' and the answer, of course, was In his own second game "I remember I didn't use a curve ball until the sixth inning. For the first five I used nothing but fast balls,

INDIANS, TIGERS TO OPEN SERIES

CLEVELAND, June 15 - The Cleveland Indians, who escaped the American league cellar by splitting a double header with St. Louis Sun-day, engage the third-place Detroit Tigers at the stadium tonight in the opener of a three-game series. Southpaw Al Smith is the Indians' hurler while Manager Steve O'Neill is expected to nominate his ace left

If Newhouser starts for the Ti-gers, Pat Seebey, will play left field for the Tribe. Manager Lou Boud-reau announced yesterday the 20year-old rookie would replace Jeff Heath whenever a portsider pitches for the opposition. Heath will be used only against right handers until he emerges from his batting Seerey has become the new "people's choice" because of his spectacular fielding and his refusal to be a sucker for big league pitching. He has made four hits in 13 trips to the plate for a .308 average.

The evacuation scheme as announced by Das Reich was this: Persons in northern Westphalia (the Ruhr region) will go to Bavaria. Those from Berlin will go to Brandenburg, East Prussia and Pomerania. Those with relatives in other districts may have permission to join them.

The Germans are unable to move their heavy industries such as coke ovens, furnaces, coal and iron mines out of the "bomb alley".)

One Berlin dispatch complained of country hotels seeking to avoid serving evacuees on the pretext that they had no bed linen and insufficient labor.
